On arrival at the room, along with your service fundi and boat captain, you will get shown the ins and outs of your private floating island.

We will then leave you alone to enjoy your new surroundings.

Once settled in, a light tropical lunch with cold drinks will be ready for you to enjoy at your leisure.

Snorkels and fins will be provided.

The underwater room lies in what we call the blue hole, which has some fantastic coral heads and an abundance of marine life.

After having sundowners on your preferred deck, dinner will be served at a pre-arranged time decided by you and your fundi.

After dinner, you will be left to yourselves. Breakfast will be served at a pre-arranged time.
