The Sankara Resort and Spa by Pramana

A hidden gem in the traditional village of Kumbuh, Mas-Ubud, the resort is elegantly embroidered on a breathtaking spacious landscape surrounded by exotic plantations of the Balinese frangipani, mangosteen trees, and the arrays of coconut trees and red palm trees are to be found amongst the collection of many rare trees. The resort is luxuriously outfitted with an 8.000 sqm infinity pool that protrudes from the lobby. This resort's centerpiece is skirted by palm trees and an arched wooden sundeck inviting you to lay back and ease off on one of the pool chairs and let the cool breeze drifts you away. Encompassing a collection of 30 Balinese-styled rooms and villas, the resort is nothing but a peaceful retreat where any soul will immerse in total relaxation and exude the charm of Ubud Tropical Living.
