What to Expect

Duration: 11 hours to 12 hours

1. Yongin Daejanggeum Park

Yongin Daejanggeum Park, the largest historical drama filming site in Korea, boasts an abundance of facilities that reflect the rich history of the Three Kingdoms, Goryeo, and Joseon periods. This is also the location where Suga, also known as August D, filmed the music video for his hit song, "Daechwita".

1 hour, 30 mins - Admission Ticket Included

2. Hakdong Park

Hakdong Park holds a special place in the hearts of the BTS members, as it was a frequented hangout spot during their trainee days. Given its close proximity to their first dorm, the park has been a witness to numerous cherished memories of the group.

30 mins - Admission Ticket Free

3. Yoojung Sikdang

Yoojung Sikdang is a well-known restaurant that served as a dining spot for BTS during their early years as trainees and newly debuted artists. Its proximity to their former studio made it a convenient choice for the members, often becoming the venue for all three of their daily meals. It is optional if you would like to have a meal here and taste the boys' favorite menu.

40 mins - Admission Ticket Not Included

4. 10-31

Visit the old big hit entertainment! Despite the entertainment company's relocation to a more spacious and sophisticated premise, the old building of Big Hit Entertainment continues to hold a special place in many army' hearts. Its significance and legacy render it an emblematic site, and it remains a coveted destination for the most passionate BTS fans to this day.

30 mins - Admission Ticket Free

5. 16 Cafe Hyuga, once the dormitory for BTS, has been transformed into a welcoming caf, offering an appealing destination for both fans of the group and coffee enthusiasts. The caf's atmosphere exudes a sense of history, complemented by charming, rustic furnishings, gentle illumination, and a tempting menu of food and beverages.

30 mins - Admission Ticket Free

6. Nodeul Island

Filming location of BTS 2021 Seasons Greetings. Nodeul Island is a quaint man-made isle nestled near Yeouido. It is encircled by the flowing Han River. Adorned with verdant trees and spacious areas, this recent addition to Seoul's landscape has quickly become a well-known spot among enthusiasts of Korean pop culture.

Our K-pop service offers a unique and premium experience that everyone can enjoy. Unlike other services that simply film videos in a practice room, we use CG to create custom backgrounds and composite scenes that appear in idol music videos. We can even provide videos that use lighting similar to what's used in music videos.

Dance Class - 1 hr.

Once we get to the dance studio, you'll enjoy 1-hour dance class led by professional K-pop dancers. Each class teaches highlights of the K-pop choreography, adjusted by your dance level. You can join alone or with multinational friends! Don't forget to shoot your own K-pop music video after you get dance training.

Course A (Blackpink songs)

Tues & sun 3:00pm ~ 4:30pm

Course B (BTS songs)

Thurs & sat 3:00pm ~ 4:30pm

Classes and filming can be done with other people

Sat 23 Nov 2024: Korean Kimchi Making Day Experience

cooKorean cooking class offers new interests in Korean food and culture. Learn to cook authentic Korean Kimchi and have a take-home experience that will stay with you forever. You meet Jomin at exit number 2 of Mangwon metro station (line number 6) at 10:00 or 18:00. On the way to Jomin's cooking studio, you will visit the local Mangwon market where you experience the Korean food culture through your own eyes. After a short briefing on the process of cooking class, you will learn to cook the most beloved 4 different Kimchi. You can enjoy your own cooking when you finish, and take the leftovers home.

What to Expect

Experience Korean Kimchi making day's atmosphere.

Everything about Kimchi!

You will learn how to make 4 types of authentic Kimchi using Korean cabbage (Baechu Kimchi), radish (Kkakdugi), and cucumber (Oi Sobagi).

Especially for cabbage Kimchi, you will learn how to make Kimchi for the long term (Gimjang Kimchi) and fresh Kimchi (Geotjeori). After cooking, you will enjoy Kimchi with boiled pork (tofu for vegetarians) like what Koreans do with the family on a 'Kimchi making day'. The class is led by certified Korean cook Jomin in English, and conducted in her cooking studio around the local Mangwon market, close to the Hongdae area. Before class, you will enjoy a local market tour as well.

This is not a demo class, but a hands-on class where you prepare ingredients from scratch. So you can repeat healthy Kimchi making back home for your beloved family and friends. During the class, you become friends sharing your passion for food, culture, and travel.

Things to note

* Meeting at exit 2 of Mangwon subway station.

* Vegetarian and vegan options available.

* class can be rescheduled or canceled if it doesn't meet the minimum number of guests - 4
