Takakkaw Falls

Visit Takakkaw Falls in Yoho National Park (when access permits), to see Canada's second-highest waterfall tumbling 254m (830 feet) in one stretch and 384m (1,260 feet) in total. The falls can be admired from the parking area or from an optional short 0.5km (mile) walk on a paved trail from the parking area to the base of the impressive falls.

30 mins - Admission Ticket Free

2. Kicking Horse Mountain Resort

At Kicking Horse Mountain Resort you will take an enclosed sightseeing gondola with glass windows up to 7,700 feet with panoramic views of the Rocky Mountains, the Columbia River Wetlands, and the quaint town of Golden. At the top, you'll enjoy a gourmet lunch from your choice of menu items with a non-alcoholic beverage and dessert at Eagle's Eye restaurant, Canada's highest restaurant. After a leisurely lunch and enjoying the mountain-top views, you'll descend back down the sightseeing gondola, and take a four-person open-chairlift chairlift partway up the mountain to the Grizzly Bear Refuge, the largest enclosed grizzly bear habitat in the world. At the refuge, you'll meet Boo, a bear with paws the size of hubcaps, a mouth full of sharp teeth and enormous muscles moving beneath his shaggy fur, in his 20-acre habitat in the Rocky Mountain bush. You'll hear his personal story and learn about grizzly bear behaviour from the knowledgeable guide while you watch him explore, hunt, and forage just like his wild cousins. After the tour, you'll descend back down the open-air chairlift.

3 hours - Admission Ticket Included

3. Emerald Lake

There will be a brief stop at Emerald Lake, famous for its jade-colored waters and surrounded by the breathtaking Rocky Mountains.

Sat 24 Aug 2024: Morning Jasper National Park Wildlife Tour

Get out early to make the most of your day. Wildlife sightings in Jasper National Park are most frequent in the early morning and during the evening. This vehicle-based guided tour offers the opportunity to observe wildlife such as elk, bear, moose, sheep, and deer at the dawn of another day. As you meander slowly down the valley, you gaze out large windows while passing stunning views of the mountains and surrounding wilderness to capture your memories through a photograph from either inside of the minibus or occasionally by a short walk at the discretion of your guide. Your local guide uses their expertise to select the route based on seasonal wildlife movements, increasing your chances of encounters. Along the way, you learn valuable insights into the challenges of managing and protecting wildlife within the national park. Our guide is eager to answer your questions as they passionately share the magic of Jaspers wild side, bringing the stories of the animals to life.
