☼Sun 03 Nov 2024: Kirirom National Park Private Day Tour

From Phnom Penh: for those who love nature, landscape, and culture, please start here with a pick-up at 7:30 am by the guide and a driver from your hotel for a drive to Kirirom National Park west of Phnom Penh. You will follow Highway 4 until you reach the Kirirom junction from where the road becomes slightly bumpier. Take a turn first towards the Chambok community and explore one of Cambodia's first community-based tourism projects. Enjoy a 30-minute trek through the forest to the Chambok waterfall and then, you will pass through the gate of Kirirom and drive up to the top to admire the views of the surrounding forest and mountain ranges. Take a stroll along some of the many trails towards the lake (20 mins). The pine forest is of particular interest and offers a relaxing walk and there are numerous streams and rapids in the park to be visited as well. Return to Phnom Penh after a refreshing day in the national park.

What to Expect

This is a Private Tour

Duration: 7 hours to 8 hours

1. Angkor Wat

The silhouette of the largest religious monument ever built slowly emerges in front of you as darkness gives way to the first rays of dawn... This is a truly spectacular sight and well worth the early start today! You may wish to assume the classic viewing position by the lotus pond and see Angkor Wat and its reflection or find yourself a different vantage point to appreciate and photograph this mesmerizing temple. When the colors of sunrise begin to fade you will explore the inner parts of Angkor Wat, and learn about its history and the fascinating stories behind the intricate carvings adorning the walls of the temple galleries.

3 hours - Admission Ticket Not Included

2. Angkor Thom

Rising eight meters high, the laterite wall measures 3x3km and guards many treasures inside, protected by a moat still flooded today. You will enter the ancient city through its South Gate. In the very center lies the temple of Bayon silent witnesses of time, the 216 enigmatic faces gaze over the horizon and one can only wonder what they have seen throughout the ages. Your guide will point out the best angles for photography here and give an explanation of the many intricate carvings on the walls of the galleries. You will then continue to Baphuon with its long causeway and an impressive giant Reclining Buddha, a jigsaw puzzle only put back together in 2011 following a 37-year-long disruption caused by the war.

Phimeanakas is hiding in the shaded jungle and offers a decent over-the-tree-top view to those who conquer the steep steps to the top. Continuing along the Esplanade of the Royal Palace more commonly known as the Terrace of the Elephants you will wind up your exploration in the shaded area of the picturesque Preah Palilay.

3 hours - Admission Ticket Not Included

3. Ta Prohm Temple

Ta Prohm gained its 21st Century fame from the movie Tomb Raider featuring Angelina Jolie as Lara Croft. Today, with Lara long gone, this temple is on the itinerary of most visitors and rightfully so. Many corners of Ta Prohm showcase an intricate relationship between the roots of the Spung tree (Tetrameles nudiflora) and ancient stones covered in moss. Truly a photographer's paradise, don't miss the opportunity to capture your own explorer's moments.
