Ashoka Tree Resort at Tanggayuda, Ubud

Perched on a green hillside of Ubud, overlooking the majestic lush forest in all of its ancient glory; including the Wos River running below, Ashoka Tree Resort at Tanggayuda Ubud is a blissful getaway sanctuary for all travelers looking to spend their holiday night away from the bustling city life. In one episode of Ramayana Indian Epic, Princess Sita once rests herself below the shade of an Ashoka tree during her stay in the Lanka region. The medium-sized evergreen tree blooms flame-like scarlet flowers that appear in clusters, and are considered holy by Hindu and Buddhist devotees.

Why Ashoka Tree Resort at Tanggayuda, Ubud?

Take advantage of a terrace, a garden, and dry cleaning/laundry services
In addition to car hire on-site and a bar, guests can connect to free in-room WiFi.
2 outdoor pools and a children's pool, with sun loungers and pool umbrellas
Free self-parking
The on-site international cuisine restaurant features pool views and a poolside location.

The Grand Bali Nusa Dua

The Grand Bali Nusa Dua offers a truly Balinese experience of serenity and personal hospitality. With 63 deluxe, suites and pool villas, five-star facilities, a private beach club, and spa, and an authentic dining experience, The Grand Bali Nusa Dua is an ideal haven to escape, unwind, and enjoy peace of mind. Traditional Balinese warmth combined with genuine service makes it an ideal choice for a serene getaway.
