Fri 09 Aug 2024: Mykonos- Semi Private Cruise to Rhenia Beach
Mykonos - (optional) Semi-Private Cruise to Rhenia Beach and Delos
Rhenia
Rhenia Beach: The local driver will pick you up and transfer you to the port. There, you will embark on the sailing yacht anchored out in Agios Ioannis Bay (you will be transferred to the yacht with a tender boat). Embarkation time is at 08:45am. While sailing, the crew will show you how to raise and trim the sails as well as to steer the yachts (if the weather permits it) or you will just relax and enjoy the beautiful scenery and the crystal-clear waters of the Aegean Sea. After approximately 1 hour of sailing, we will have our first stop at the untouched Island of Rhenia with the gold sandy beach, and you will enjoy your swim or snorkeling. At this point, a light lunch will be prepared and served on board. A selection of complimentary house wine and soft drinks are also offered.
2 hours - Admission Ticket Free
Archaeological Site of Delos
Delos: After approximately 2 hours spent in the untouched islet of Rhenia, the next stop is Delos Island, one of the most important archeological sites in Greece where you will enjoy a licensed tour guide to the museum and admire the staggering array of ancient ruins. For those who prefer to stay on board, we will sail for a second beach stop for swimming in one even more stunning pristine bay of Rhenia Island. It is all about a flexi program where you are free to choose the best way to enjoy your time! Around 15:30 we will sail back to Agios Ioannis Bay where we will say our goodbye with a farewell traditional Greek toast.
