- ✈Shared walking tour to Monteverde Reserve. The tour begins when the naturalist guide picks you up at your hotel in Monteverde. Then you will begin to discover the trails, there are several that you can choose. An alternative is to walk to the panoramic viewpoint of LaVentana, where you can witness the natural contrast made by the Continental Division, a geographical feature that traces the main mountain ranges of Costa Rica. In this place, you can experience the force of the trade winds loaded with moisture that blow from the Atlantic coast, and witness how they descend at great speed towards the Central Pacific and the coastal plains of northern Costa Rica. There are more than 500 species of birds, including the majestic Quetzal, 120 species of reptiles and amphibians, more than 3000 plants, and the largest variety of orchids in the world.

- The Canyon Canopy Tour is the most dynamic canopy tour in Costa Rica because it combines more than just the zip lines. The tour includes rappelling, rock climbing, Tarzan swing, and hanging bridges, all set in the majestic canyon made by the erosion of the Blanco River for millions of years. Then for relaxation time, enjoy a volcanic mud bath and thermal hot springs. This unique attraction is surrounded by forest and adjacent to the Rio NegroRiver. The water and the volcanic mud are believed to have healing properties; at the very least it makes you feel good smearing around the mud from head to toe!
