What to Expect

Visit a family owned winery in the village Steni in Tinos. Meet the winemaker and learn how his love for Tinos Island, his place of origin, motivated him to get seriously involved in the adventure of planting a new vineyard and starting wine production. Learn how his desire to contribute in the quality job done for bringing the potential of Greek vineyards to the forefront of the world wine scene matches the relatively new discovery of the Tinos island terroirs and at the same time the progressive resurgence of our unique island which is rich of an incredible array of extraordinary landscapes and culinary delights. Start with the tour on the vineyards and then discover the winery and the cellar. Your expert guide and wine lover will explain about the machines, the history of the winery, the wines, the varieties etc. Lastly, you will enter the tasting area where you will taste 6 different wines, which are accompanied with a small plate of snacks like local cheeses and hams. During the tasting your sommelier will explain to them about each wines characteristics. Get ready to live an authentic experience in Tinos !
