Wed 19 Jun 2024: Private Nashville Walking Tour with Johnny Cash Museum

On your three-hour walking tour of Nashville, you will discover how music forms a common thread throughout Nashville communities, binding the life and soul of the city and its people. Your guide will talk to you about how the growth of Nashville's music publishing sector in the 1800s helped prompt the deluge of popular artists visiting Nashville in the mid-1900s to play the Ryman Auditorium, including Sandra Bernhardt, Louis Armstrong, John Philip Sousa, and Nat King Cole. Learn about the music stars who have made Music City their permanent home, including the band members from the Kings of Leon, Justin Timberlake, The Black Keys, Keith Urban, Michael McDonald, Keb Mo, Sheryl Crow, Paramore, Hot Chelle Rae, and Jack White. As you walk, there will be numerous opportunities to hear the live music for which the city is known, and your tour will finish at the Johnny Cash Museum (tickets included)!

Fri 21 Jun 2024: Walkin' Nashville - Music City Legends Tour

This is a tour for music lovers and those wanting the inside story of how Nashville became Music City. Your friendly guide is Grammy-nominated music journalist Bill DeMain, a writer with over thirty years of experience who has contributed to publications such as MOJO and Rolling Stone. He is also a Nashville correspondent for the BBC. DeMain has interviewed an A-Z of pop and country music superstars, including Dolly Parton, Merle Haggard, Paul Simon, Billy Joel, Loretta Lynn, Willie Nelson, David Bowie, and Stevie Nicks. An acclaimed songwriter, DeMain has had songs covered by such artists as Marshall Crenshaw, Kim Richey, and Curtis Stigers. He's also one-half of the acclaimed pop duo Swan Dive. His songs have appeared in TV shows such as Sons of Anarchy and Private Practice. A long-time Nashville resident, DeMain will take you through decades of musical history, from country to rock n roll, for a tour experience that will make your visit to Nashville an unforgettable one.
