Basilique du Sacre-Coeur de Montmartre. Meet your guide and launch your adventure with a funicular ride to see the Sacre Cur Basilica in Montmartre. Feel your heart soar as you ascend through the 18th arrondissement and ogle at the white-stone faade of the Sacr Cur without having to trudge up more than 300 stone steps.
1 hour, 15 mins - Admission Ticket Included

2. Montmartre
Follow your guide for a walking tour of the neighborhood, visiting its very own vineyard and iconic windmills. Discover the past lives of famous artists and writers like Van Gogh and Picasso who once wandered these cobblestoned streets. Sit down at a charming French cafe to enjoy a coffee and croissant (not included in price).
1 hour - Admission Ticket Free

3. Louvre Museum
Hop on the metro with your guide and head to the Louvre Museum. With pre-reserved tickets, you'll head right inside this world-class art museum. Enjoy a 90-minute guided tour and see great works like the Mona Lisa and more accompanied by stories from your expert guide.
2 hours - Admission Ticket Included

4. Paris
Pause for lunch at your own expense. Duck inside a French bistro or poke into a patisserie and dine on a crusty baguette, fresh fromage, and an energizing espresso. Reconvene with your group after lunch for a short metro ride to the next stop.
1 hour - Admission Ticket Free

5. Ile de la Cite
The tour continues with a walking tour of le de la Cit, an island in the middle of the Seine River and the birthplace of Paris. Your guide will point out several monuments including La Conciergerie, where Marie Antoinette was imprisoned, Place Dauphine, possibly the prettiest square in Paris, and the gorgeous Pont Neuf bridge.
