The Serangoon House

➤ Situated on buzzing Serangoon Road, The Serangoon House is among the finest examples of Indian colonial design and interior architecture in Singapore's most vibrant ethnic district, Little India. Step into the lobby of Serangoon House, the ultimate family-friendly boutique hotel, with custom-made porcelain chandeliers, green and white marble mosaic flooring with scenes from colonial India on exclusive De Gournay wallpaper and velvet banquette seats for patrons to mingle. The 90 rooms of Serangoon House are adorned with bespoke double-tiered canopy bunk beds, lovingly handmade with unwavering attention to detail

Why The Serangoon House?

- Amid shops and eateries in the Little India neighborhood, this refined hotel is a 6-minute walk from Sri Veeramakaliamman Temple. It's 2 km from the National Museum of Singapore and 17 km from Singapore Changi Airport.
- Plush rooms come with Wi-Fi, TVs and safes, plus minibridges, and tea and coffeemaking facilities. All feature marble bathrooms and ornate bunk beds. Suites add living areas.
- There's an elegant, colourful restaurant serving Indian fare. Breakfast is available.

The Sarann

➤ Nestled on the tip of Koh Samui's pristine Chaweng Noi beach, The Sarann is an intimate oceanfront villa resort offering a distinctive level of relaxation and luxury. A stone's throw from Koh Samui's main dining and nightlife area, and just 20 minutes from the airport, the resort offers a beautiful balance between quiet and convenience

Why The Sarann?

- At the edge of Chaweng Noi Beach, this upscale seafront hotel is 9 km from Wat Phra Yai, a temple known for its 12 m gold Buddha statue, and 13 km from Wat Khunaram, with its shrine to a mummified monk.
- Refined rooms have free Wi-Fi, flat-screens and DVD players. They also have minibars and balconies. Suites add patios and hot tubs; the villas feature separate living rooms and sun decks on the beach, 1 has an infinity pool.
- There's a restaurant with a waterfront terrace. Amenities include an outdoor pool and a spa offering Thai massage. Parking is included. Breakfast is available for a fee.
